

XRAY SQUARE GAME

Players take turns drawing a line to connect the x-rays, either horizontal or vertically. If a player makes the line that completes a square, that player writes their initials in the square, score (1) point and gets to draw another line. When all of the x-rays are connected, total your points, the player with the most points win!!!

This is a full square